

Dixcart Air Marine - Team Introduction

Dixcart Air Marine assists clients with the registration of yachts, ships, and aircraft in a number of different jurisdictions.

22nd March 2021

The Team and Activity

Dixcart Air Marine assists clients with the registration of yachts, ships, and aircraft in a number of different jurisdictions.

Our team of experienced professionals across the various Dixcart offices, provide a complete service for clients. Professionalism, coupled with practical experience, help guarantee a smooth process for our clients and enables them to access a range of attractive measures that are available in the different jurisdictions.

Dixcart Air Marine can coordinate the entire yacht, ship, or aircraft purchase and/or ownership. To maximise the benefits, one of our professionals should ideally be involved as early as possible – as soon as the thought of owning the asset has occurred to the client. To see the full range of services available, please click here.

Introduction to Jonathan Vassallo and Paul Harvey

Jonathan Vassallo from the Malta office and Paul Harvey from the Isle of Man office are two key members of the Dixcart Air Marine team that we are introducing you to today.

Jonathan joined Dixcart in September 2009. He is a member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants, the Malta Institute of Taxation, the Malta Institute of Accountants, and the Malta Institute of Management. Jonathan is also a member of the Yachting Business Section of the Malta Chamber of Commerce, Enterprise and Industry. He is the Managing Director of the Dixcart office in Malta.

Paul Harvey, an accomplished figure in offshore financial services, brings over two decades of expertise to his role at Dixcart Management (IOM) Limited. With expertise regarding superyacht holding structures, Paul collaborates closely with a network of tax advisers, lawyers, and industry experts to ensure the efficient establishment, management, and administration of these prestigious assets. His expertise extends to both private and commercial vessels.

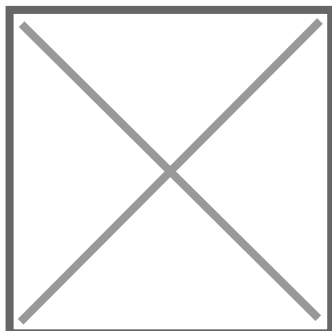

Jonathan Vassallo – jonathan.vassallo@dixcart.com

Jonathan was appointed Director of Dixcart Management Malta Limited at the start of 2013 and Managing Director during 2018. His role is to develop and implement strategy for the Malta office ensuring that the Group's high standards of compliance and operational control are maintained. He manages a number of relationships with international clients and particularly specialises in the areas of yachting, residence, and VAT. He has extensive experience with the registration of yachts and superyachts, the formation and administration of the relevant holding structures, and the ongoing management of yachting structures.

Before joining Dixcart, Jonathan Vassallo was involved in the manufacturing industry in Malta for thirteen years. During this term, he served as an Accountant and Financial Controller for two major furniture firms in Malta.

Paul Harvey – paul.harvey@dixcart.com

Paul is a member of the Society of Trust & Estate Practitioners (STEP) and is skilled in handling complex tax and legal matters related to superyachts. He regularly attends events such as the Monaco Yacht Show.

Paul became a member of the Society of Trust & Estate Practitioners (STEP) and joined the Dixcart office in the Isle of Man in 2009, later becoming a director of Dixcart Management (IOM) Limited in June 2017. He maintains daily engagement with clients, advisers, and yacht professionals, leveraging over 20 years of offshore financial services experience to navigate the tax and legal complexities of superyacht holding structures effectively.