Dixcart Corporate Services

The Dixcart Group has been providing corporate services for over 45 years. Dixcart has extensive expertise in advising both private and institutional clients as to how to set up structures to best meet their needs and to match their circumstances. A number of structures feature companies in one or more jurisdictions as well as other asset protection vehicles, whilst many just feature companies.

Dixcart not only establishes the companies but also provides a comprehensive range of company management services. Such corporate services include:

- Day to day administration and company secretarial services
- Director services
- Registered office and agent services
- Tax compliance services
- Accountancy services

- Dealing with transactions, including all aspects of acquisitions and disposals

Introduction to Charalambos Pittas and Steven de Jersey

Charalambos Pittas from our Cyprus office and Steven de Jersey from the Guernsey office are two key members of the Dixcart Corporate team that we are introducing to you today.

Charalambos Pittas joined the Dixcart Group in 2018 and was appointed Operations and Finance Director of the Dixcart office in Cyprus. He is responsible for the operations of the office and supervision of all accounting functions for clients. He also provides support to the Managing Director to develop the office and the depth of services that it provides.

Steven de Jersey is a Director of Dixcart Guernsey and is a Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales with over 25 years' experience in the Guernsey Finance Industry. Steve joined Dixcart in 2018, after 13 years productively spent establishing, and developing the Guernsey office for a leading Guernsey service provider. His particular focus was advising and servicing the larger and more complex structures for both institutional and private clients. Guernsey is a very attractive location for structures due to its zero corporate tax rates for the majority of companies established on the island relating in tax transparent structures for investors.
