

What is an Isle of Man 2006 Act Company?

The Isle of Man Companies Act 2006 (CA 2006) introduced what is commonly referred to as the New Manx Vehicle (NMV). Companies incorporated under the Isle of Man Companies Act 2006 provide a more modern and dynamic form of corporate entity than those constituted under the more traditional Isle of Man Companies Act 1931.

- 0% Capital Gains Tax

- 0% Inheritance Tax

- 0% Withholding Tax on Dividends

- The Isle of Man is in a customs union with the UK, and Isle of Man companies can register for VAT in the UK

Features of the Isle of Man 2006 Act Company

The Isle of Man Companies Act 2006 offers an administratively streamlined corporate vehicle that significantly reduces the bureaucratic burden of operating an Isle of Man Company. For instance, the Act only requires simplified reporting and minimal meetings to sanction certain actions.

Isle of Man CA 2006 Companies also allow for greater flexibility in their Corporate Governance, for example, there may be a single individual or Corporate Director and there is no requirement for a Company Secretary. However, a Registered Agent must be appointed at all times, which you can read about here.

Further, you can now re-register an Isle of Man CA 2006 Company to a CA 1931 Company.

Common uses for NMV Companies

The CA 2006 Company's Objects are not restricted, and therefore the entity can undertake any lawful activity required, subject to the Risk Appetite of the selected Trust & Corporate Service Provider.

Whilst the Company can pursue any activity, there some common uses of the NMV:

1. Equity Holding

1. Private Investment

1. Luxury Asset Holding e.g. Superyachts
