The Isle of Man is known as the jewel of the Irish Sea, situated centrally between England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales.

The island is the largest Crown Dependency, at 572 km<sup>2</sup>, and can boast of being the world's only 'Entire Nation' UNESCO Biosphere - owing to its culture, natural environment and approach to conservation.

However, the natural environment isn't the only aspect of the island that is managed with a view to sustainability. The Isle of Man is committed to the long-term sustainability of its financial services industry and is an OECD 'whitelisted' jurisdiction. The island adheres to international compliance standards and is well-regulated with a view to remaining a trusted centre of excellence.

The Isle of Man has a long history of independence, with the oldest continuing parliamentary assembly in the world, operating for over a thousand years. Further, the island has been a self-governing Crown Dependency since 1866, setting its own laws, regulation and tax regime. The headline rates of taxation are:

- 0% Corporate Tax
- 0% Capital Gains Tax
- 0% Inheritance Tax
- 0% Withholding Tax on Dividends
- The Isle of Man is subject to the UK VAT regime

The island's autonomy and modern approach to business has allowed the jurisdiction to remain a very flexible and competitive location for international private client and corporate planning; earning the Latin motto emblazoned on its Coat of Arms "Quocunque Jeceris Stabit" which literally translates to "Whithersoever you throw it, it will stand".

ASSET PROTECTION, ESTATE AND SUCCESSION PLANNING

Trusts

Trust law in the Isle of Man is well established and largely based on the law of England and Wales. However, Manx trusts are allowed to accumulate interest without restriction and can continue in perpetuity. Further, Manx Trusts that generate income from outside of the island and that are formed for the benefit of non-resident Beneficiaries are not subject to Isle of Man taxes.

The Trustees will hold the legal title and be liable for the Trust Fund. Unlike UK Trustees, an Isle of Man professional Trustee must hold a Class 5 License and is regulated. Dixcart can assist with the establishment and administration of many kinds of Trusts, from standard Discretionary Trusts to more specialist forms.

Foundations

The Isle of Man Foundation offers distinct features that differ from those available from a Trust or Limited Company. For example, the Foundation has separate legal personality but is not linked to shares or guarantee and does not require assets to be dedicated on inception. As such, the Foundation has the capacity to enter into a contract, own property and take legal action in its own right, whilst not having a duty to shareholders as there is no share capital.

The Foundation's Council Members are unencumbered by the personal liability that Trustees take on. The Foundation must have an Isle of Man Registered Agent at all times. In line with Isle of Man Trustees, Council Members are regulated and must possess a Class 4 License.

Companies

Through the issuance of different classes of share, various powers and rights can be attributed to different parties to create a Family Investment Company style structure.

For example, this mechanism can provide the Founder with increased control during their lifetime, beneficiaries with access to income and/or capital and the appointed Directors with management rights. This makes the Isle of Man Company an alternative to a Trust or Foundation.

Additionally, Trusts often have an underlying Company to engage in commercial or other investment activity. Similarly a foundation cannot engage in commercial activity that is not incidental to the attainment of its objects, and in such instances also requires a Company.
